In addition to being a leading original equipment manufacturer of Hatlapa and Hamworthy marine compressors for more than 55 years, and building on the successful supply of parts for other manufacturers such as Sperre and Sauer & Sohn, MacGregor is now launching its supply chain for Tanabe starting-air compressors, including Dongwha and Jonghap as well as other brands.

All MacGregor compressor spare parts are thoroughly tested, inspected and delivered with the MacGregor standard guarantee and support from our global service network.

All parts are stocked in our logistics centre in Germany and ready for shipment within a short period of time.

MacGregor also supplies replacement compressors.
